

COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL SERVICES

OSWEGO COUNTY

The Position

Oswego County is undertaking new collaborative multi-jurisdictional and multi-agency initiatives to reduce poverty and re-strategize workforce development. The Commissioner of Social Services is the chief executive officer in the County Social Services Department responsible for administering public assistance and care as defined by Social Services Law. The Commissioner is a key leader directing the cooperative efforts of citizens, other agencies, and officials towards a common goal in planning for community services. This requires oversight of the daily operations including supervision of 300+ employees with an annual operating budget of more than 73 million dollars. The incumbent reports to the County Administrator and is responsive to the direction of a 25-member County Legislature.

Primary responsibilities include:

- all phases of the social services program, including planning, organizing, directing, and coordinating the work of the various units of administration for efficient and effective operation;
- financial planning, including preparation of budgets, maintenance of fiscal controls, and submission of required reports to the local legislative body and state board;
- determination of personnel requirements and the appointment of staff in compliance with state law and local civil service rules;
- oversight of the organization and administration of a comprehensive and effective staff development program, including in-service training;
- cooperation with representatives of the state welfare program in the operation and development of the local welfare district program;
- public relations of the welfare district and for the interpretation of the public welfare program to the community;
- collaboration with other agencies, public and private, officials, and citizens in planning for community services;
- maintenance and operation of a home or homes for the aging, children's shelters, and/or infirmaries as dictated by needs of the district.

Competitive salary and benefits provided commensurate with education and experience.

Our Commitment
